About this piece

An oval copper tray dating to c.1910, designed in the Arts and Crafts Movement style. The surface is hand-hammered and decorated with a repeating foliate and floral motif in repoussé relief, bordered by a scalloped rim with neatly folded edges. The craftsmanship reveals the emphasis on decorative simplicity and honest construction central to the movement. The aged patina enhances the warm tone of the copper, highlighting the intricate handwork and subtle variation across the hammered surface.
