About this piece

An oak drop-leaf table aligned to the Arts and Crafts movement (1880–1910), c.1900. Rectilinear legs and rails frame end panels pierced with stylised cutouts; the leaves are supported on swing-out legs, creating a compact footprint closed and a generous top when opened. The honest joinery, planar surfaces and graphic cutouts are characteristic of British Arts and Crafts furniture aimed at practical domestic use.

Folded Width: 14.5"

Further images available on request. The piece is currently held in storage at one of our showrooms.
