About this piece

Gordon Russell

This is a rare, super-quality Arts & Crafts Cotswold School oak dining table. The oak top has a wonderful wild grain and an extended overhang to each end for the comfort of one's feet.

Four square legs with chamfered edges are united by an H-frame twin-stretcher arrangement, which is united in the middle and further through exposed tenon construction. The table retains the original Gordon Russell Workshops paper label underneath, signed with the maker's name 'Wm Russell' and dated 1926.
