About this piece

These armchairs in oak sit within the Arts and Crafts (1880–1910) tradition, c.1900, British. The square frame carries broad, slightly swept arms over straight front posts and low side stretchers. The back is arranged with twin splats divided by a central rail, each splat pierced with a small stylised floral motif and finished with simple incised lines, the top rail lightly arched to soften the profile.

Further images and measurements available on request. The piece is currently held in storage at one of our showrooms.
