About this piece

Morris & Co., attributed to Phillip Webb

An Aesthetic Movement walnut Arts and Crafts style dresser sideboard with dentil molding to the cornice and open shelves above the work area. With two drawers, a small one to the left, and a larger single drawer to the right with double drawer fronts, and three large spacious cupboards below. The brass handles are made by The Birmingham Guild of Handicraft and stamped B. G. H. The whole stood on sledge-style feet.
