About this piece

Urania Pewter Ware

Maastricht, Holland. An Art Nouveau pewter fruit or bread bowl with a loop handle and floral decoration to the sides. Urania was founded in 1902. Hubert Regout's original name for the business was "NV Kuntszinn," but he changed it to Urania in 1903.

The factory closed in 1910. A key designer for them was Friedrich Adler and probably the designer of this fruit bowl. Stamped mark Urania 1174.
